FOREWORD

BY GEORGE A. KIRAZ

The Chronicle of Michael the Great (also known as Michael the Syrian) is a universal history that begins with the creation of the world and ends in 1195 AD. Perhaps it is the largest medieval chronicle known. It is important for historians of different periods and subjects, spanning from the Byzantine world up to the period of the Crusades, including the early rise and development of Islam. Some of its sources are lost, and for this reason it is sometimes the only witness. The aim of Texts and Translations of the Chronicle of Michael the Great is to provide scholars with the tools necessary for the study of the Chronicle.

Volume 1, The Edessa-Aleppo Syriac Codex of the Chronicle of Michael the Great, offers for the very first time the Syriac text of the unique manuscript containing the Chronicle, dated 1598, in facsimile form. I am grateful to Mor Gregorios Yuhanna Ibrahim, Syrian Orthodox Metropolitan of Aleppo, who accepted to act as editor of this volume. Access to the codex is a history in its own right. The Edessan community of Aleppo, the custodians of the codex, has been protective and seldom permitted that it be shown, let alone photographed. During 1991 and 1992, Juan Nadal Cañellas, with funding from the late Mrs Anna Maria Aletti of Rome, directed a project to digitize Syriac manuscripts in the Middle East, with the permission of the Syriac Orthodox Patriarchate.[1] The first expedition in 1991 covered material from Mardin and Tur Abdin. The second expedition in 1992, which R. Lavenant joined, aimed at microfilming the Aleppo codex. After much difficulty in opening the safe where the codex was kept, the codex was photographed by a local photographer. Three microfilms were produced: the first deposited with Mor Gregorios Yuhanna Ibrahim, the second with the library of the Pontifical Oriental Institute in Rome, and the third sent, with the surprise of the recipient, to Sebastian P. Brock. Only a few scholars were aware of the microfilms, and these were seldom used for research. In 2007 I produced three additional microfilms and high quality digital images for archival purposes, as well as a limited printed "edition"[2] of five copies for the purpose of depositing them at various key institutions. This covert operation was happily interrupted when permission was granted in 2008 to produce the current edition from the original codex. In July 2008, during a Symposium on Jacob of Edessa held in Aleppo, Sebastian P. Brock and I, in conjunction with Mor Gregorios Yuhana Ibrahim and with feedback from Columba Stewart O.S.B., put forward a proposal to the Edessans of St. George parish to permit the publication of a color facsimile edition. With encouragement from Mor Gregorios, the parish accepted the proposal. Had it not been for this happy development, Volume 1 of this series would have been simply a reproduction of Jean-Baptiste Chabot's somewhat unsatisfactory edition.

Volumes 2-4 reproduce Chabot's French translation of the Syriac text with annotations and indices. Readers must take care realizing that the translation was made from Chabot's edition, which is reproduced here in Volume 10.

Volumes 5-7 are devoted to the Arabic Garshuni version of the Chronicle, produced by John Shuqayr, Metropolitan of Damascus, in 1759. This version exists in four manuscripts. Volume 5 gives a facsimile of the Sadad manuscript edited by Mor Silwanos Boutros Issa Al-Nemeh, Volume 6

When permission was granted to photograph the codex, four copies were distributed as follows: 1. Kiraz private collection, 2. Beth Mardutho Library, 3. Oxford (privately), and 4. Münster (privately).

gives a facsimile of the Jerusalem manuscript edited by Mor Severius malke Mourad. Volume 7 gives a facsimile of the Mardin manuscript edited by Mor Philoxenos Saliba Özmen. The fourth manuscript is in London, British Library Or. 4402.

Volumes 8 and 9 are devoted to an Armenian epitome made during the thirteenth century which survives in two recensions. Volume 8 gives one of the recensions, edited by a monk named Vartan and published in Jerusalem in 1871. A French translation by Victor Langlois of another Armenian recension is given in volume 9.

Volume 10 gives a reproduction of Chabot's Syriac edition which can serve as a tool to compare Chabot's text with the original manuscript in volume 1.

It is my sincere hope that scholars and students will now have at their disposal the entire corpus related to the Chronicle of Michael the Syrian in one place. Should further material come to light, it will appear in subsequent volumes.

PREFACE

BY MOR GREGORIOS YUHANNA IBRAHIM

Ever since my divine call for the episcope of Aleppo on 4th March 1979, I have been nurturing a passionate dream, that one day I will witness this rare and unique manuscript of the Chronicle of Mar Michael the Syrian the Great in print and accessible to scholars. This exclusive and unrivaled manuscript is a part of the Edesseans Codices in our custody, a collection of about 300 Syriac manuscripts. The entire collection was recovered, rescued and brought along to the safety of Aleppo with the Edessean community after their mass and final exodus from Urfa, the ancient Edessa, in 1924. Currently, this manuscript is deposited at the library of St. George's Church, the Church of the Edesseans, at the Syrian District in Aleppo, one of the Churches of our Archbishopric.

Two decades later in 1996, we published the very first Arabic translation of this Chronicle in two volumes as part of our Syriac Studies series at Mardin–Edessa Publishing House in Aleppo. Gratitude is due to the Syrian Orthodox Archbishop of Mosul-Iraq, Mar Gregorios Saliba Shamoun (1979-Present). He combined his command of Syriac and Arabic with hard work culminating in the production of an excellent Arabic version of this chronicle. However, a comparative study between the French translation by J.B. Chabot and this Edessean Codex was a part of his intention, which is still pending.

To mark the 1300 anniversary of St. Jacob of Edessa's repose at the Great Monastery of Tel Ada on 5th June 708, the Archdiocese of Aleppo hosted an international conference 8-11th March 2008, generously sponsored by the Edessean Syriac community of Aleppo. It was an opportunity for the participating scholars to view the unique Codex of Edessa in our custody. They expressed their wishes and the need to make a printed copy form of this important Syriac chronicle accessible to researchers and Syriophiles worldwide. Formal request was made to the Council of St. George's. With unexpectedly swift momentum, the Edessean Board of Trustees, realizing the magnitude of the Edessean heritage, kindly granted their unanimous permission to make, for the first time, a copy of the Codex of Edessa available in a print form.

Now, after a long wait, a dream came true. Considering the extraordinary private life of this manuscript, we are extremely glad to have this unique, surviving and extant Edessean manuscript of Mar Michael (the Syrian) the Great in print form and placing it at the disposal of Syriac scholars with the efforts of our beloved Dr. George A. Kiraz of Gorgias Press.

Mar Michael became known as "Rabo", "The Great" due to the distinguished quality of his works, which reflect his service, witness and advocacy considering the great difficulties, which marked the time and era of his Patriarchate. Mar Michael was also known as "The Syrian", as an identity indicator of belonging to the Ancient Syrian Orthodox Church; the Church which enriched the world heritage with the intellectual properties of its teachers, fathers, scholars, and poets. The zenith attends and spans for centuries from the 3rd century to the 14th century.

According to Bar Hebraeus (d. 1286), Mar Michael the Great was born at Melitene (today Malatia in Turkey) in 1126AD to the Qandasi, a Syrian Orthodox family, his father Elia Al-Qandasi, was a known Syrian priest. His paternal uncle was Mar Athanasius Al-Qandasi (d.1166) the bishop of Ain Zarba, (Today Anazura), on the bank of the river Jihan a town in the environ of Cilicia.

Mar Michael became a postulant for monk-hood at the local Monastery of Mar Barsoum, the ruins of which have been rediscovered recently. This citadel-like-monastery near Melitene served as a Patriarchal See from the eleventh to thirteenth century, when the Patriarchal See moved to Dayr

Al-Zafaran. However, previously successive Syrian Patriarchs chose different monasteries in Mesopotamia and in the environ of Antioch as their Patriarchal see including the Monastery of Tel Ada.

Michael studied at the monastery of Mar Barsoum, where he became a monk, was ordained Rabban (priest) and eventually became the abbot of the Community of Mar Barsoum for thirteen years. Patriarch Mar Athanasius VIII (1138-1166) offered him the Bishopric of Amid (Dyir Bakir), but Rabban Michael declined the offer of the Episcopal vocation and preferred to retain the Abbotship of the Monastery of Mar Barsoum.

The Church Synod convened after the death of the Patriarch in 1166 at the Monastery of Fusqin, (it is also known as the Barefooted Monastery), on the East bank of the Euphrates in the vicinity of Melitene. The convened prelates were faced with the most important act of synodical responsibility at a juncture which made it more crucial. After long deliberations they carefully chose three candidates for the vacant Patriarchal Set: Rabban Ghalib Al-Shaikh, Rabban Sahda of Mount Edessa and Rabban Michael the Abbot of the Monastery of Mar Barsoum.

Fully aware of the complexity of the predominantly inherited intra-church difficulties and the vulnerability of his church in a fluid political milieu, initially, Michael declined the synodical nomination for this vital ecclesiastical leadership position.

On the insistence of the synod and for the sake of church unity, and the prevalence of the spirit of Episcopal collegiality, Michael stipulated that his conditional acceptance would only be fulfilled if all bishops pledged allegiance and observance of Canon Laws.

The Synodical Bishops were not all in favor of Michael's stipulations and conditions. A consensus was not reached until they were assured with a passionate interjection from the renowned Syrian Scriptural exegesis of Mar Dionysius Jacob Bar Salibi the Bishop of Amid (+1172). The latter championed the importance of adhering to Canon Law, which together with scripture and dogma, is the knot that ties together all ecclesiastical unifying bonds, re-addresses ecclesiastical authority and precipitates the necessary reform.

Bar Salibi told the convened college of bishops: "with the divine providence we were given a very suitable leader, any defiance for his justifiable and legitimate requests can only be considered the work of evil."

Bishops were moved, and a change of hearts brought refreshment among bishops who unanimously pledged to the Patriarch elect to adhere to Canon Law.

At the relatively young age of 40, Mar Michael was consecrated as the seventy-eighth Patriarch. The ceremony was presided by the Catholicose and attended by 28 bishops, who handed him the Church's pastoral baton and the ecclesiastical authority. Mar Michael embarked on his Patriarchal responsibilities with verve, enthusiasm and managed the church wisdom and firm leadership.

The decision to move the Patriarchal See to the Monastery of Al-Zafaran (also known as St. Hananya), in the vicinity of Mardin-Turkey, was part of his reorganization program. Since then Al-Zafran served as the Patriarchal See almost uninterrupted for more than 750 years until the First World War. At that time, the prevailed law, order and security in the region rendered it untenable for the newly elected Patriarch Elias III (1917-1932) to stay at Al-Zafaran. He ruled the Church from different Archdiocese until his death in India. Patriarch Ephrem Barsoum (1993-1957) had to officially move the Patriarchal See to the city of Homs in Syria. Patriarch Jacob III (1957-1980) moved the See of Antioch to the Syrian capital Damascus.

St Michael started the year of his Patriarchate, which lasted 33 challenging years, by embarking on a program of pastoral visits to all diocese under his jurisdiction, which were scattered from Antioch to Jerusalem and along the Mesopotamian plateaus and valleys into India. He was among the longest serving Syrian Orthodox Patriarchs. On his death on 7th November 1199, he was laid to rest in the catacomb of the Antiochean Patriarchs at his beloved Monastery of Mar Barsoum.

The medieval holy wars in the Middle East, accompanied with political and social turmoil and inter-religious foment, that marked the era of Patriarch Michael the Great (1166-1199), reflected the consequences of the weakness and steady decline of the authority and power of the Abbasid Caliphate (750-1242) and the incursions into the region of the successive Crusaders campaigns. As a contemporary of the consecutive waves of crusades, the Chronicle of Mar Michael, in our hands, is the beating heart of his age, portraying a first hand witness and the feelings of the painful political developments, which culminated in the conquering of Jerusalem in 1099 until its liberation in 1187, and its consequences on the entire region.

Mar Michael stated that: "It is rather difficult to express in words the enormity of the humiliations, degradations, dreadful hardship conditions, that were sustained by the oppressed native Christians of Damascus, Harran, Amid, Mardin, Mosul, Tikrit and the entire Kingdom".

In addition to the pre-text of the political milieu of his age, the church was not immune from an inheritance of an intra-ecclesiastical vendetta, which was not less crippling. Some bishops, in their endeavor to undermine the unity of the church, challenged the authority of the Patriarch. Bishop Yohanna Al-Qaloniqi, who was excommunicated in 1174, attempted to settle old scores with the Patriarch by enlisting the help of the ruler of Mardin and the Atabeg Zengid Prince of Mosul Saif ud-Din Gazi II Mawdod (1169-1180). This brought to play the consequences of an undesirable State interference in the internal affairs of the Church.

The episode of Mar Michael's student and secretary, Bishop Theodorus Ibn Wahbon of Malatya (d.1193), with an ambitious design for power, endeavored to highjack the authority of the patriarchate. To achieve that, four excommunicated bishops performed an irregular patriarchal consecration ordaining him as anti-patriarch with the name: Yohanna at Diyar Baker in 1180. Furthermore, after the death of the Catholicos or Maphrian Yohanna V (1164-1188), Bar Wahbon, endeavored to secure the authority of the Catholicate. A temporary resignation of Mar Michael may have been due to the successive intra-church disturbances and vendetta which eventually ended with the death of Bar Wahbon in 1193.

The chronicle of the Anonymous Edessean treated the life of Mar Michael the Great. In spite of the perilous problem that punctuated his vocation as the helm of the Syrian Orthodox Church, he had unprecedented success on the administrative, ecumenical and intellectual levels. The Anonymous Edessean, chronicled an unprecedented ecumenical initiative before the age of ecumenism; the grandeur reception of Mar Michael by Basilios Shoman the Bishop of Edessa. On 7th May 1167, Mar Michael was welcomed with an impressive procession at Antioch and ushered by the Latin custodian of the ancient Church of St. Peter the apostle, and was seated on the see of St. Peter in the south section of the Church of Qsena.

Mar Michael extended his pilgrimage by spending the summer of 1167 at Antioch, during which he consecrated a number of Bishops at Antioch. Furthermore, in 1173, King Manuel I (1143-1180) sent his emissary Christophrios, who was bearing the Royal Peace Epistle, inviting Mar Michael to unite with the Chalcedoneans of the Byzantine World. Mar Michael received the royal emissary in audience, and gave him a comprehensive reply confirming the Orthodox dogma and belief of his Church together with some constructive proposals for the pending unity. Mar Michael, indicated his gut feeling that his genuine proposals for unity were doomed to be rejected by the Chalcedon ecclesiastical and temporal authority, he writes: "We were genuinely keen to confirm the Orthodoxy of our Faith and dogma. Therefore we promptly acted on the received Royal peace missile and sent our own emissaries to the King and to all Chalcedon Churches."

Considering the difficulties of his age, his intellectual and administrative activities never hindered or impaired. He gave special attention to uphold and revise Canon Laws. The Synod held at the Zafaran (or Hanania) Monastery adopted 29 Laws adding to that 12 Laws in 1174. His works on liturgies are comparable and complimentary to the work of Mar Jacob of Edessa (+708). He has also written Liturgy composed alphabetically, and has had two Husoyos (Syriac for Propitiatory Prayers), one of them dedicated to his patron St. Barsoum. Since the work of Mar Michael, church liturgies had little attention apart from the updating and reforming studies of Bar Hebraeus.

He was an ardent orator, who gave particular consideration to the spiritual underpinning of sermons of Sunday and feast sermons. Among his obituary work the outstanding obituary of Mar Dionysius Jacob Bar Salibi (+1171) eloquently state his endeavor for intra-church unity, and indicate his exegetical stature, and standing in the Church.

However, he is most renowned as historiographer and chronicler. Alas many of his works do not survive or reached us incomplete—to mention but a few, The Chronicle of St. Jacob of Edessa (+708), The Chronicle of Mar Dionysus of Tel-Mahre (+845), and the Chronicle of St. Michael, the subject of this book.

Chronology of the Successive Translations of the Chronicle

It is worth mentioning that this chronicle is long known to scholars in different later dated versions. Initially, the Armenian Catholicos Constantine I of Cilicia (1221-1267) commissioned Fr. Yashoua Bar Shamas Yacob Bar Toma, who was born in Castrum Cephe or Hesn Khayafa (Kayaf or Cephe is the Syriac word for cliff), to make a translation in 1245. This manuscript was made available in its revised and abridged version translated into Armenian from a Syriac manuscript. This Armenian manuscript, with some corrections and partial verification was made available in print by an Armenian Monk called Wartan at Jerusalem. A French translation was also made of the Armenian.

A rhyming Arabic translation was made available by Yohanna Shoqair Al-Sadadi, the Bishop of Damascus in 1759. Five copies of this translation survived in the Libraries of Dayr Al-Zafaran, Sadad, Amid, Monastery of St. Mark Jerusalem and at the British Library.

The known French translation by Fr. Yohanna Chabot was based on a version copied in 1888 AD or 2199 Greek, by the Deacon Goria, an Edessean Syrian calligrapher, almost 341 year after the writing of the Codex of Edessa. Chabot's version is a photographic reproduction as a facsimile in four volumes and was published in Paris between the years 1899-1910.

We have no knowledge of any comparative studies between the Codex of Edessa and the copy of Chabot. It remains to be seen whether the mistakes in the Chabot version will be found in the Codex of Edessa.

It remains that the most recent and the only Arabic translation of the Codex of Edessa was translated and published in 1996 by Mar Gregorios Saliba Shamoun the Archbishop of Mosul-Iraq. It is the only translation from the Codex of Edessa currently at the disposal of scholars east and west.

We hope that the chronicle of St. Michael the Syrian in its Codex of Edessa, which is part of the Edessean Codex in the custody of St George Church at the Syrian district of Aleppo, will be of benefit for scholars in their endeavors to advance Syriac studies and knowledge.

It is now 810 years since the death of St. Michael and 451 years since the Codex of Edessa first saw the light in Edessa. With the grace of God and the benevolence of St. Michael we are very glad that, at long last, the dream of making, for the first time, this oldest Syriac version in existence of the Chronicle of St. Michael the Great available to scholars is now a reality. It will, with no doubt, shed a light on the importance of its content and help the advancement of Syriac studies.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

BY GEORGE A. KIRAZ

The facsimile publication of the Edessa-Allepo Codex would not have been possible without the hard work and generosity of many people.

First and foremost, I would like to thank Mor Gregorios Yuhanna Ibrahim, Syriac Orthodox Metropolitan of Aleppo, for his appreciation for scholarship and his wisdom which contributed to the granting of permission for publication. The Board of Trustees of St. George Syriac Orthodox parish of Hay al-Suryian in Aleppo, the custodians of the Codex, are gratefully acknowledged for allowing the publication. Mr. Robert bar Pawlos Gabriel played a key role and very kindly facilitated matters. Scholarship will always be indebted to all of them.

The appeal for the publication was made in person to Mor Gregoris Yuhanna Ibrahim during the Jacob of Edessa conference in Aleppo in the late hours of June 12, 2008. The meeting was attended by Sebastian P. Brock, Columba Stewart O.S.B, Amir Harrak, Khalid Dinno, Walid Mourad, and George A. Kiraz. Metropolitan Ibrahim suggested that a proposal, addressed to the Board of Trustees of St. George parish, be signed by Sebastian Brock and George A. Kiraz. A proposal was drafted during a time when monks would have been performing the three qawme of the Night. The next morning, during a hectic trip to historical sites, the drafted proposal was reviewed by all those who attended the meeting. The proposal was submitted at the end of that day. A few days after we left Aleppo, Mor Gregorios informed us of the good news that the proposal was accepted by the Board of Trustees.

The following week, the Codex, accompanied by the Trustees, was transferred to the Syriac Orthodox Archdiocese where HMML had already a working studio for the digitization of Aleppo-based manuscripts. Mr. Walid Nabih Mourad, HMML's Technical Supervisor, managed the digitization. Mr. Ammar Ghanem Geeso, HMML's onsite photographer, very meticulously digitized the Codex. In a matter of days, the images were at HMML's offices in Collegeville, MN. Mr. Wayne Torborg, HMML's Director of Digital Collections and Imaging, very promptly transferred the images to Gorgias Press. Within 32 days of our initial proposal, Gorgias Press received the material for publication. This speedy achievement, a record of all the projects I have been involved with in the past, could not have happened without the hard work of all the individuals involved. Columba Stewart O.S.B, Director of HMML, is commended for having such an efficient team.

In the meantime, Gorgias Press began fundraising to subsidize the publication as the production cost was prohibitive. Many individuals helped in this regard. Grants were received from the MILDRED H. KELLOGG TRUST provided through Columba Stewart O.S.B, from the BARNABAS FUND, from PRINCETON THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY through the efforts of Iain Torrance, and from BETH MARDUTHO: THE SYRIAC INSTITUTE. The names of individual contributors appear next.

TEXT SUMMARY

BY SEBASTIAN P. BROCK

Preliminary note: The folio numbers used here correspond to the Arabic foliation (to be found on each verso); in the one case where a number has been erroneously repeated, the second occurrence is designated as f.131bis. The number in square brackets following the folio number is the page number of the Syriac text in Chabot's edition; since this is also indicated in his French translation, it should thus prove easy to correlate the text of the Edessa-Aleppo manuscript with Chabot's translation. Chapter numbers are not always provided in the manuscript, and where these are absent they have been supplied here (and in Chabot's translation) in square brackets. Likewise, not all chapters have titles in the manuscript; where this is the case, brief titles giving an indication of the contents have been supplied in square brackets. Many of the Books have quite long titles, often giving indications of the period covered using a number of different eras; since the figures given in the manuscript raise many problems (especially for the later Books), from Book 10 onwards the AD dates given below have been converted from the Seleucid era figures, since these appear to be the least problematic.

[Preface	(only preserved in the Armenian translation)]

EXCERPTS FROM THE CHRONICLE OF PATRIARCH MICHAEL I IN MSS. BERLIN SACHAU 81 AND YALE SYRIAC 7

BY HIDEMI TAKAHASHI

Two excerpts from the Chronicle of Patriarch Michael which seem to have remained unnoticed are found in two manuscripts with almost identical contents:[1] Berlin, Sachau 81; and Yale, Syriac 7.[2] The shorter of the two excerpts deals with the disagreement over the dates of Lent and Easter in 1413 A.Gr. (1102 A.D.), and is apparently an abridged excerpt taken from Book 15, Chapter 8 of the Chronicle. The longer excerpt, dealing with the confusion over the date of Easter in 881 A.Gr. (570 A.D.), is of somewhat greater significance, since it is explicitly attributed to Michael and corresponds verbatim to a passage in Book 10, Chapter 3 of the Chronicle, but includes in the middle a number of lines that have been omitted due to scribal error in the Edessa-Aleppo manuscript (and consequently also in the text published by Chabot).

Of the two manuscripts, Sachau 81 has been described in some detail in the catalogue of Syriac manuscripts in Berlin by Sachau.[3] It is a manuscript of Barhebraeus' Candelabrum of the Sanctuary with a number of additional items appended at the end, namely a sugitho by Jacob of Sarug (fol. 215v-216r), "on the religion of the Arabs" attributed to Cyril (fol. 216v), the two excerpts with which we are concerned here (fol. 216v), and an account by Patriarch Ignatius Niʿmatallah I (patriarch 1557-76) of his involvement in the Gregorian calendar reform (fol. 216r-216v).[4] The main part of the manuscript was copied before 1403 A.D., but the appendices are found on leaves which were supplied later and which Sachau judged to date from the sixteenth or the seventeenth century (1693 A.D. at the latest).

[1] My encounter with the excerpt in the Yale manuscript discussed in the following note was made possible by my stay at Yale in the summer of 2009 as a part of the Todai-Yale Initiative, a project of academic collaboration between Yale University and the University of Tokyo. I am grateful to the staff of the Beinecke Rare Book and Manuscript Library for their kind assistance during my frequent visits there in the course of that summer, and to George Kiraz for the decision to include this note in the present volume at short notice.

Barṣaum, on the other hand, was aware of the identity of the author, and mentions the presence of the piece in Sachau 81 and the manuscript now at Yale (then in Istanbul), as well as in a manuscript in his library (Ighnāṭiyūs Afrām al-awwal Barṣaum, al-Lu'lu' al-manthūr fī ta'rīkh al-ʿulūm wa-l-ādāb al-suryāniyya [Glane/Losser: Bar Hebraeus Verlag, 1987], 460 with n. 4; Ignatius Aphram I Barsoum, The Scattered Pearls, trans. [Piscataway: Gorgias Press, 2003], 513, n. 4). – On Patriarch Niʿmatallah's activities in Italy and his involvement in the Gregorian calendar reform, see Giorgio Levi della Vida, Documenti intorno alle relazioni delle chiese orientali con la S. Sede durante il pontificato di Gregorio XIII (Vatican City: Biblioteca Apostolica Vaticana, 1948); August Ziggelaar, "The Papal Bull of 1582 Promulgating a Reform of the Calendar", in Gregorian Reform of the Calendar, ed. Yale Syriac 7, acquired by Yale University in 1968, is one of the six manuscripts now at Yale (Syriac 7-12) which (like Paris syr. 395-398 and the now lost manuscript of the Chronicle of the Year 1234) once belonged the collection of Bishop Timotheos Paulos Urhoyo (bishop of Urhoy 1883-87, patriarchal vicar in Istanbul 1887-1913) and his son Fehim Beg in Istanbul.[1] The content of the manuscript is practically identical with that of Sachau 81, although it is to be noted that the excerpts from Patriarch Michael's Chronicle are found after the piece by Patriarch Niʿmatallah in this manuscript (Candelabrum, p. 1-382; Jacob, p. 383-384; Cyril, p. 384; Niʿmatallah, p. 385-386; Michael, p. 386-387). With the exception of some jottings on p. 390, the whole manuscript, including the appendices, was copied by the same hand. The colophon found at the end of the list of contents for the Candelabrum tells us that the copying of that text was completed in 1590 A.D. in the Monastery of Mor Abḥay by Mika (Michael) bar Barṣaum of Qasṭra ʿUrboysh[2] – that is to say, the very same person as the one who eight years later copied the Edessa-Aleppo manuscript of the Chronicle of Michael reproduced in this volume. Sample collations of the text of the Candelabrum, including those parts that are in the later supplies in Sachau 81, show that the text in Yale Syriac 7 is very close to that of Sachau 81 but has some additional errors, so that the Yale manuscript is likely to be an immediate copy or a descendant of the Berlin manuscript.

Excerpts from Michael's Chronicle in Berlin Sachau 81 and Yale Syriac 7

The shorter of the two excerpts (1102 A.D.) corresponds to the passage at fol. 294v (p. 588), inner (left) column, l. 6-19, of the Edessa-Aleppo manuscript (and Chabot's edition), and the longer (570 A.D.) to those at fol. 168v (p. 336), middle column, l. 1-29, and 169r (p. 337), middle column, l. 1-15.

As has been mentioned, the two excerpts in the Yale manuscript follow the piece by Patriarch Niʿmatallah and are both in the hand of Mika bar Barṣaum. In that manuscript, the shorter excerpt is placed before the longer one. In Sachau 81, the longer excerpt, copied at right angles to the rest of the text in the bottom right corner of the page below the piece attributed to Cyril, appears to be in the same hand as that of the pieces that precede and follow (i.e. the hand responsible for the later supplies in that manuscript), but the shorter excerpt is in a different hand and was evidently inserted later into the space between the longer excerpt and the piece by "Cyril".[3] The likelihood, therefore, is that the excerpts in the Yale manuscript were copied from the Berlin manuscript at a stage when the second, shorter excerpt had been added to the page in the Berlin manuscript.

2 Colophon (p. 12): ܫܠܡ ܦܘܢܩܣ ܐܘܟܝܬ ܡܢܘܪܬ ܩܘܕܫܐ ܘܡܠܬܐ ܕܡܢܝܢܐ ܡܘܪܫܐ ܠܘܬ ܡܫܟܠܢܐ ܩܕܝܫܐ ܘܡܠܬܐ ܩܘܡܣܘܦܛܪܝܬܐ ܡܢ ܐܒܐ ܓܝܘܠܐ ܐܡܝܢܐ ܘܩܕܝܫ ܘܕܝܢܝܐ ܘܦܢܝܢ ܓܢܐ ܗܘ ܐܝܠܐ ܕܟܠܫܐ ܦܢ ܡܚܝܪܘܬܐ ܘܢܝܠܐ ܘܩܘܢܠ. ܐܠܐ ܒܢܘܢ ܒܒܢܒܐ ܕܝܢ ܠܒܘܣܠܐ ܡܚܒܪ ܡܫܠܐ ܒܪ ܒܪܨܘܡ ܡܢ ܩܣܛܪܐ ܥܘܪܒܘܝܫ ܒܫܢܬܐ ܐܪܒܥܬܐ ܘܫܡܢܐ ܘܐܪܒܥܝܢ ܘܦܘܫܩܢܐ ܒܝܪܚܐ ܕܚܕܝܢ ܐܒܝܚ. – The village name ܥܘܪܒܘܝܫ, usually transliterated ʿUrbish, is clearly written with zqofo on the bet here. See also the subscriptions on fol. 295v and 339v in the present volume, where Michael refers to himself as ʿUrboyshoyo (ܥܘܪܒܝܫܝܐ, ܥܘܪܒܘܝܫܝܐ).

3 There is a further passage (not mentioned by Sachau), apparently reporting some event in 2003 A.Gr. (1691/2 A.D.), in the middle of the page on fol. 216v in the Berlin manuscript. The passage is in Garshuni and is now largely illegible. Grigory Kessel, who kindly inspected the manuscript at my request, informs me that the following letters are still visible: ܡܢ / ܡܘܠܐܣ ܟܠ ܡܣܢܐ[...] ܦܠܚܠܐ.

The view that the excerpts in Yale Syriac 7 were copied from Sachau 81 is also given some support by the texts of these excerpts. I give below the variant readings of the excerpts in the Berlin (B) and Yale (Y) manuscripts against the text of Chabot's edition of the Chronicle.[1]

Ed. Chabot, fol. 294v, inner column, l. 6-19: 7 ܕܒܝ̈ܬܐ: ܕܒܝ̈ܬܗܘܢ B || 7-9 ܗ̇ܘ ܕܥܒܝܕܬܐ ܘܡܛܠܬܗ ܕܥܐܕܐ: abridged to ܕܥܒܝܕܬܐ ܡܛܠܬܗ BY [ܡܛܠܬܗ illegible B] || 9-10 ܕܝܘܡܐ ܠܚܘܫ̄ܒܐ ܕܚܫܘܫܐ ܘܩܝܡܬܐ ܝܘܡ ܗ̄ ܒܫܒܐ ܘܡܚܕܐ: abridged to ܚܫܘܫܐ ܘܩܝܡܬܐ ܒܚܕܒܫܒܐ BY || 12 ܡܚܫܒܢܘܬܐ: ܕܡܚܫܒܢܘܬܐ BY || 13 ܚܕܐ: om. Y || 14 ܠܗܠܝܢ: ܠܗܠܐ BY || 17 ܟܠܗ: ܟܠܗܘܢ BY || 18 ܐܬܡܠܝܘ: ܐܬܡܠܝ B || ܚܫܘܫܐ: illegible Y ||

Ed. Chabot, fol. 168v, middle column 1-29; 169r, middle column, 1-15: 168v 1 ܫܢܬܐ: add. ܫܢܝ̈ Y [illeg. B] || 3 ܕܡܢ̈ܐ: ܕܐܬܟܢܫܘܬܐ Y [illeg. B] || 8 ܦܠܓ̈ܘܬܐ: ܦܠܓܘ̈ܬܐ Y [illeg. B] || ܠܡܩܒܠܘ: ܠܡܘܩܒܠܘ Y [illeg. B] || 17 ܚ̄ܟܡ: ܠܐܠܟܣܢܕܪܘܣ BY || 25 ܕܐܠܟܣܢܕܪܝܘܬܐ: ܕܐܠܟܣܢܕܪܝܐ Y [illeg. B] || 29 ܚܫܒܢܐ: so also B; ܚܫܒ Y || ܚܫܒܝ: add. lost passage BY (no visible variants between B and Y) || 169r 1 ܕܝܢ: om. Y [illeg. B] || 4 ܚܫܐ: ܚܫܬܐ BY || 12-13 ܐܦܩܘ: ܘܦܩܘ ܐ̄ BY || 13 ܕܗܘ̈ܝܐ: ܢܗܘܐ BY || ܚܣܘܪܐ: so also Y; ܣܘܪܐ ut vid. B || 14 ܕܐܩܠܝܡܐ: ܕܟܠܗ BY ||

One difference between B and Y that is of significance is the omission of the word ܚܕܐ in Y (294v 13), since this indicates that the excerpt in B could not have been copied (at least solely) from Y. In three cases, Y is in agreement with the text of Chabot's edition against B (294v 7 ܕܒܝ̈ܬܐ; 18 ܐܬܡܠܝܘ; 169r 13 ܚܣܘܪܐ), but these involve instances of restoration that could have been made by the copyist without recourse to another manuscript.

One can here only speculate on the circumstances that led to the inclusion of the two excerpts in the Berlin manuscript. One important clue is provided by the adjoining piece by Patriarch Niʿmatallah, much of which is also concerned with the determination of the date of Easter and with which the two excerpts are therefore closely connected in content. In that piece, which was evidently addressed to his faithful back home,[2] the former patriarch tells us that he reached the solution of the problem that was given to him by the Pope and other prelates and scholars on 27th July, 1579 A.D. It is possible that the longer of the two excerpts formed an appendix to the communication sent by Patriarch Niʿmatallah from Rome, but its placement in Sachau 81 speaks against this, and it is also unlikely that the patriarch had a copy of the Chronicle with him. It seems more likely that the piece by Patriarch Niʿmatallah and the excerpt were brought together by someone who had access to the communication from the former patriarch and who was, at the same time, familiar enough with the contents of Michael's Chronicle to remember the passage on the events of 570 A.D. One possible candidate who fulfils those conditions will be Moses of Mardin, the copyist of the exemplar of the Edessa-Aleppo manuscript.[3]

[1] A large part of the longer excerpt in Sachau 81 is unfortunately illegible on microfilm.

[2] The piece begins: ܕܥܘ ܐܘ ܐܚܝ ܕܓܒܪ̈ܐ ܡܝ̈ܬܪܐ ܕܗܢܐ ܐܘܚܕܢܐ ܕܙܒܢ̈ܐ ܚܕ̈ܬܐ ܕܡܢ ܥܡ̈ܡܐ ܣܓܝ̈ܐܐ ܡܫܚܠܦ̈ܐ ܘܥܬܝܪ̈ܐ ܐܡܪ ܐܢܐ ܐܝܛܠܝ̈ܐ ܘܦܪ̈ܢܓܝܐ ܘܐܣܦܢ̈ܝܐ ܘܦܘܪܛܘܓܠ̈ܝܐ ܘܐܠܡ̈ܢܝܐ ܘܗܘܢܓ̈ܪܝܐ ܘܦܘܠܘ̈ܢܝܐ ܘܒܢܝ̈ܛܩܝܐ ܘܫ̈ܪܟܐ... ("Know, my brothers, that the excellent men of modern times in this realm, who were assembled from the many different and opulent nations, I mean the Italians, French, Spaniards, Portuguese, Germans, Hungarians, Poles, Venetians, and others …").

[3] On Moses as the copyist of that exemplar, see Dorothea Weltecke, Die «Beschreibung der Zeiten» von Mōr Michael dem Grossen (1126-1199) (Louvain: Peeters, 2003), 158-159, with the literature cited there; cf. also the introduction to The Widmanstadt-Moses of Mardin Editio Princeps of the Syriac Gospels of 1555. A Facsimile Limited Edition with an Introduction by George Anton A. Kiraz (Piscataway: Gorgias Press, 2006). – I have been unable, in the time available, to obtain specimens of Moses' handwriting. The writing in the Berlin manuscript, with the vertical lines of letters leaning up to about 30 degrees to the right, looks different from the more upright letters of the type used in the Gospels published by Widmanstetter (which is said to have been modelled on Moses' handwriting), but is not altogether without similarities to the latter in the shapes of some letters.

Lacuna in the Edessa-Aleppo Manuscript

The passage lost in the Edessa-Aleppo manuscript and now recovered from the excerpts in Sachau 81 and Yale Syriac 7 begins just after the letters ܟ̈ܢܝ and ends with ܟ̈ܢܝ (Sachau, l. 12-17; Yale, p.387, l. 13-22), so that its absence in the Edessa-Aleppo manuscript can be explained as a typical instance of omission due to homoeoteleuton. It will be seen that there is a blank space at the bottom of the middle column on fol. 169r in the Edessa-Aleppo manuscript, which is just large enough to have been filled if the lost passage had been present. It is likely, in other words, that the passage was still present in the immediate exemplar used by Michael of 'Urboysh in preparing the Edessa-Aleppo manuscript and he secured sufficient space for copying the column with it, but inadvertently made an omission in copying the text and never checked to see why the blank was left.

It is of note that the Garshuni version of Michael's Chronicle does not have this lacuna. This leads us to conclude that the Garshuni version was not made from the Edessa-Aleppo manuscript or a descendant thereof. The relevant passage in the Ṣadad manuscript reads as follows (fol. 173v, middle column, l. 26-36):[1]

...ܘܟܢ ܟܓ̄ ܦܝ ܢܝܣܢ ܝܘܡ ܐܠܐܚܰܕ. ܠܐܢ ܐܘܠ ܙܡܢ ܐܠܝܗܘܕ ܟܐܢ ܝܘܡ ܐܠܐܚܕ. ܦܝܟܘܢ ܝܘܡ ܐܠܐܚܕ ܐܠܐܚܪ. ܠܐ ܟܳܢ ܒܝܢ ܐܠܝܗܘܕ ܡܥܗܡ
ܟܡܝܠܐ ܠܠܬܠܐܬ ܟܢܬ ܦܨܚ ܐܠܝܗܘܕ ܘܟܢ ܐܠܡܣܝܚܝܝܢ ܐܠܐܚܕ ܗܘ ܦܨܚܐ. ܙܡܢ ܐܠܝܗܘܕ ܟ̄ ܦܝ ܢܝܣܢ ܘܟܢ ܟܡܠܗ ܡܢܗ. ܘܟܬܒ ܠܗ ܡܢܗܡ ܦܨܚ
ܐܠܝܗܘܕ ܦܝ ܫܒܛ ܘܟܢ ܦܝ ܟ̄ܛ܀ ܦܟܡܠ ܗܘܐ ܐܠܫܗܪ...

I offer below a translation of the longer excerpt found in the Berlin and Yale manuscripts, placing in braces ({}) the parts that are missing in the Edessa-Aleppo manuscript.

> In the year 881 {of the Greeks}, which was the fourth [year of the reign] of Justin [and] the last of the nineteen-year period of the Chronicle of Eusebius according to the computation of 532 years, there was confusion about the Fast, and they wrote about it from the East to John, Patriarch of Constantinople. When it was ordered that a careful determination[2] [be made] for all the feasts according to the computation we have mentioned, that of Nativity and Epiphany were in order, but the rest were in confusion. They ought to have begun the Fast of that year on 23rd Shbaṭ, but some began on 16th and others on 29th.[3] In the end, everyone was ordered to celebrate Easter together. The Jews, at the end of the nineteen-year period, celebrate the Passover on 6th Nisan, so that they have the beginning of the next nineteen-year period on 25th Adar. – The end of this year coincided with the end of the nineteen-year period – i.e. [their Passover should have been] on Sunday, 6th Nisan, and ours on Sunday,

[1] With thanks to George A. Kiraz for allowing me to see the facsimile edition of this manuscript prior to publication. – The confusion of the date of Easter in 881 A.Gr. does not appear to be among the events of the reign of Justin II whose records are retained in the abridged Armenian version(s) of Michael's Chronicle (the account is absent in the French translation by Victor Langlois, Chronique de Michel le Grand, patriarche des syriens jacobites, traduite pour la première fois sur la version arménienne du prêtre Ischôk [Venice: Académie de Saint-Lazare, 1868], 201-208; I have not seen the editions of the Armenian texts).

[2] The excerpt in Y has the plural ܐܣ̈ܩܘܡܐ here (illegible in B), but the Edessa-Aleppo manuscript and the Garshuni version (Ṣadad) have the word in singular (ܐܣܘܡܐ; ܡܢ).

[3] So in the excerpts in B and Y, as well as in the Edessa-Aleppo manuscript and the Ṣadad manuscript of the Garshuni version. This must be an error for "9th" as already noted by Chabot in his translation.

13th {Nisan. For whenever the Jews celebrate [the Passover] on a Sunday, we wait until the next Sunday, because our Feast follows after that of the Jews. [That is] because [it was] after their Passover [that] Christ was sacrificed, and that is our Passover. The Jews celebrated on 4th Nisan, and we on 6th of that month. That of the Jews ought to have been on 6th and ours on 13th.} Confusion similar to this occurred again in the year 976, after an interval of 95 years, in the 209th year of the 532-year cycle. A similar confusion occurred again after 190 years concerning the beginning of the Fast in the year 1166 of the Greeks, which was the 399th year in that 532-year cycle.

مـــقـــــدمـــــــة

متروبوليت حلب

كان حلمي منذ 4/آذار/1979، عندما اختارني الله لأكون مطراناً على حلب، أن أرى في يوم من الأيام مخطوط تاريخ مار ميخائيل الكبير المحفوظ في كنيـسة مـار جـرجس ـ حـي السريان، وهي إحدى كنائس أبرشيتي، مطبوعاً، ليكون في متناول اليد خاصة بـين المستـشرقين والباحثين والمؤرخين الذين يرون في هذا التاريخ مصدراً مهماً من مصادر التاريخ عند السريان بكل مذاهبهم.

وفي سنة /1996/ ولأول مرة، طبعنا هذا التاريخ باللغة العربية ضـمن منـشورات دار ماردين ـ الرها في حلب، وقد تعب مار غريغوريوس صليبا شمعون رئيس أساقفة كنيستنا فـي الموصل بترجمة هذا الكتاب، وكان بوده أن يقارن بين نسخة شابو والنسخة الموجودة عندنا، ولم يحصل ذلك.

وبين 8ـ11/آذار/2008 استقبلت أبرشية حلب، وبينهم السريان الرهـاويون فـي حـي السريان مجموعة من الباحثين لتقديم دراسات عن مار يعقـوب الرهـاوي 5/حزيـران/708 م بمناسبة مرور ذكرى /1300/ سنة على رقاده في دير تلعدا الشهير، وتمنى المستشرقون خـلال الاحتفالية رؤية مخطوط مار ميخائيل الكبير، وتقدموا بطلب إمكانية طباعته للمرة الأولى كما هو وباللونين الأسود والأحمر. كان يحتاج الأمر إلى قرار من المجلس الملـي فـي مرعيـث مـار جرجس، لأن هذا المخطوط ملك لخزانة كنيسة المرعيث، وفيها أكثـر مـن /300/ مخطوطـة سريانية هي بقايا مخطوطات الرها. ولم أكن أتخيل بأن الأمور ستكون ميسرة كما حـصل، فهـا نحن نقدم للطبع تاريخ مار ميخائيل الكبير المخطوط، الذي كان محفوظاً أولاً في خزانة كنيـستنا في الرها، واليوم عندنا في حلب، وأملنا أن يكون لفائدة القراء.

عُرف مار ميخائيل بـ : الكبير، للأعمال المميزة التي أتى بها خلال خدمته كبطريـرك في ظروف صعبة عاشتها كنيسته. وبـ السرياني إشارة إلى انتمائه إلى هذه الكنيسة العريقة، التي أغنت صفحة التراث بالنتاج الفكري للمعلمـين، والملافنـة، والبـاحثين، والعلمـاء، والأدبـاء،

والشعراء، الذين زيّنوا صفحة العطاء الفكري لعدة قرون بدءاً من القرن الثالــث وحتــى القــرن الرابع عشر للميلاد.

وُلد مار ميخائيل في عام /1126 م/ من عائلة سريانية أرثوذكسية يسميها ابــن العبــري بــ : آل قنداسي، وكان أبوه كاهناً معروفاً باسم القس ايليا آل قنداسي، وكان عمه أثناسيوس زكا مطراناً لمدينة عين زربة إحدى مدن قيليقية الواقعة على نهر جيحان.

انتسب مار ميخائيل إلى دير مار برصوم الشهير ــ وقد اكتشفت أثاره قبل أعوام ــ هــذا الدير أصبح مقراً للكرسي الأنطاكي منذ القرن الحادي عشر وحتى الثالث عشر، إذ انتقل الكرسي البطريركي إلى دير الزعفران، وكان البطريرك السرياني قبلها يعيش في كورة أنطاكية، منهــا : في دير تلعدا الشهير.

درس مار ميخائيل في دير مار برصوم، ثم أقيم رئيساً عليه لمدة عشر سنوات، وفــضّل رئاسة الدير على مطرانية آمد الذي عرضت عليه من قِبَل البطريرك أثناسيوس الثامن الذي عندما توفي في سنة /1166/، اجتمع المطارنة في دير فسقين الواقع على ضفة الفرات في مكان غيــر بعيد عن مدينة ملاطية، وبعد مشاورات ومداولات لانتخاب بطريرك جديد قرَّ رأيهم على الاقتراع لثلاثة أسماء وهم : الربان غالب الشيخ، والربان سهدا من جبل الرها، والربان ميخائيل رئيس دير مار برصوم، ولكن الربان ميخائيل الذي كان على علم ومعرفة بما يجري في الكنيــسة، ونظــراً للظروف الصعبة المحيطة بها، والمشاكل المعقدة السائدة فيها يومئذٍ، رفض قبول هــذا المنــصب الخطير، وعندما أقنعوه بضرورة الموافقة، اشترط على جميع المطارنة أن يعاهدوه علــى التقيــد بقوانين البيعة، فرضي بعضهم، ولم يطاوعه بعــضهم الآخــر، بــل عارضــوه، فــنهض مــار ديونيسيوس يعقوب ابن الصليبي مطران آمد /1172 +/ وهو الشهير بــشرحه للعهــدين القــديم والجديد، وألقى خطبة بليغة أثّرت كثيراً في كل المطارنة جاء فيها : إننا منذ سنين طويلــة نحــن وآباؤنا ذوو الذكر الطيب نشعر بنخس الضمير الذي يمزقنا، لأننا لا نــسير بموجــب القــوانين المجمعية التي سنّت لاستئصال الضلال وسوء الاستعمال وإصلاح شؤون الطائفة، والآن بعد أن حرّك الله خيرة من اختير راعياً علينا ليعيد رونق القوانين الأبوية، فهل يسوغ لنا أن نقاوم إرادته ؟ الحق أقول لكم كل من لا يطاوع فهو إبليس.

هذه الخطبة أثّرت كثيراً في الحضور، فرضي الأساقفة بمعاهدة البطريرك علــى التقيــد بقوانين الكنيسة، واحتفلوا بتنصيب مار ميخائيل عام /1166/ في حفلة كنــسية نــادرة، وذكــر البطريرك مار ميخائيل ذاته أن /28/ مطراناً حضروا رسامته. وبعد تنصيبه انتقل إلى دير مــار

حنانيا وهو اليوم دير الزعفران، في أطراف ماردين، القلعة السريانية الصامدة، واتخذه مقراً للكرسي الأنطاكي، وبقي هكذا، إلى أن نقله البطريرك أفرام الأول برصوم /1957 +/ إلى حمص سنة /1933/، والبطريرك يعقوب الثالث /1980 +/ إلى دمشق سنة /1959/.

بدأ البطريرك مار ميخائيل الكبير عمله بزيارات رعوية من أنطاكية إلى أورشليم، وخدم /33/ سنة بهمة عالية، وإدارة حكيمة، إلى أن نقله الله إليه في 7/تشرين الثاني/1199، فدفن في مقبرة أحبار أنطاكية العظام في دير مار برصوم.

لقد كان الظرف المحيط بعهد مار ميخائيل مضطرباً جداً سياسياً، إذ كانت الدولة العباسية تحتضر، والضعف يتفشى في كل أرجائه، وكانت حملات الفرنجة تواصل احتلالاتها، وقد كتب مار ميخائيل في تاريخه عن شعوره وهو يشاهد الأحداث الأليمة الحاصلة في المنطقة، بعد احتلال القدس : إن الكلام لعاجز عن التعبير عن جميع الإهانات والمذلات والاحتقار التي أصابت الشعب المسيحي المضطهد في دمشق، وحرّان، وآمد، وماردين، والموصل، وفي سائر أنحاء المملكة. ولم يتحمل مار ميخائيل فقط من الجو السياسي المضطرب، وإنما من داخل الكنيسة أيضاً جاءته ضربات موجعة، فبعض المطارنة ناصبوه العداء، منهم : يوحنا القالونيقي الذي عزله البطريرك سنة /1174/، فحرّض حاكم ماردين وأمير الموصل على البطريرك، وعانى كثيراً من الأسقف المتمرد تاودروس بن وهبون الملطي، الذي حاول اختلاس البطريركية وفعلاً رسمه أربعة من المطارنة المطرودين بطريركاً دخيلاً باسم يوحنا عام /1180/ في دياربكر، وحاول أن يختلس المفريانية بعد وفاة المفريان يوحنا، ولم تنتهِ هذه القلاقل التي اضطرت البطريرك على الاستقالة إلا بعد وفاة ابن وهبون حيث تخلصت من شره.

يتناول المؤرخ الرهاوي المجهول /1234 م/ في تاريخه بعض محطات من سيرة مار ميخائيل الكبير، فبينما يكشف عن الأحداث المؤلمة التي رافقته أثناء خدمته كبطريرك، ولكنه في الوقت ذاته يُشير إلى الاستقبال الكبير الذي جرى له في مدينة الرها، وكان مطرانها يومئذٍ باسيليوس شومنه. وفي السابع من أيار عام /1167/ دخل مار ميخائيل إلى أنطاكية باحتفال مهيب وإكرام لا يوصف، وأدخله الفرنج إلى كنيسة بطرس الرسول، وجلس على السدة البطرسية الموجودة في كنيسة قسينا في الجهة الجنوبية، ومكث البطريرك فيها الصيف كله، ورسم في هذه السنة في أنطاكية أساقفة كثيرين.

ومن مآثر البطريرك أنه ابّنَ المطران مار ديونيسيوس ابن الصليبي، بكلمة بليغة مقدراً مكانته في الكنيسة المقدسة. ومنها أيضاً : أنه في سنة /1173/ استقبل رسولاً باسم كريستوفورس

من ملك بيزنطة عمانوئيل، وكان يحمل رسائل تدعو إلى السلام، وتطلب إلى البطريرك أن يقيم وحدة مع البيزنطيين، وعندما عرض رأيه كتابة، وكتب عن الإيمان الأرثوذكسي بحسب إيمان كنيسته رفض الخلقيدونيون اقتراحاته، رغم أن البطريرك كان على دراية كافية بنتائج الانقسام، ولهذا نراه يكتب قائلاً : بأننا لم نهتم بإيفاد رسول وجواب رسائل إلى الملك وإلى جميع الخلقيدونيين لغرض آخر سوى أن نظهر استقامة إيماننا.

رغم كل الظروف الصعبة لم يهمل مار ميخائيل الكبير الناحية الفكرية، فلقد نظّم بعض القصائد، واهتم بقوانين المجامع، وسن بعض القوانين منها /29/ قانوناً في دير مار حنانيا، و/12/ قانوناً وضعها سنة /1174/، وأولى اهتماماً بالغاً بطقوس الكنيسة وفروضها، وله ليتورجية على حروف الأبجدية، وحسايتان إحداهما لمار برصوم، وكذلك اهتم بخطب الأعياد والآحاد، ويعتبر اهتمامه بالطقوس الكنسية مكملاً لما قام به مار يعقوب الرهاوي (5/حزيران/708 +)، وربما بعد هذا البطريرك لم يحصل أي دراسة إصلاحية للطقوس في كنيستنا إلا ما قام به مار غريغوريوس يوحنا ابن العبري. ولكن شهرة مار ميخائيل جاءت من كتابه في التاريخ الذي جمع فيه تواريخ مهمة فقدت، أو مازالت مفقودة أو ناقصة مثل : تاريخ مار يعقوب الرهاوي /708 +/، وتاريخ مار ديونيسيوس التلمحري /845 +/ وغيرهما، ونشر هذا المخطوط بالسريانية في أقدم نسخة له يلقي ضوءاً على أهمية محتوى هذا المخطوط النفيس.

ونختم هذه المعلومات عن مار ميخائيل الكبير بوصيته الأخيرة التي ختم بها حياته، وهذا النص هو بحسب ما ورد في تاريخ الرهاوي المجهول :

إني استحلفك بالله الحي بألا تتجاوز على أحد هذه الأمور التي كتبتها في هذه الوصية، بل أن تدبر الكنائس والأديرة بأمانة، وأن تعطي كل واحد حسب وصيتي. وإذا كنت بعيداً في وقت موتي، فهو ذا قد وضعت أمراً ومنعاً صارماً في الوصية بألا يُفتح باب قلايتي إلى أن تصل.

ميخائيل الشيخ الضعيف، بنعمة الله بطريرك الكرسي الرسولي الأنطاكي، عبد يسوع المسيح إله الكل، الذي برحمته ونعمته تلقى ابني بالروح وابن أخي بالجسد، يعقوب ابن العزاء، تربية مقدسة منذ نعومة الأظفار إلى اكتمال العمر. وإذ ذاك شاء الروح القدس بأحكامه التي لا تفحص، كما هو معتاد أن يختار من يشاء، فاختاره لرئاسة الكهنوت في الكنيسة، وفيها رسم على يدي حقارتي وأقيم رئيس أساقفة للمنطقة الشرقية، وأعلن اسمه غريغوريوس، وشيئاً فشيئاً، حسبما قيل في الكتاب المقدس، كما أن النار المضطرمة في مادة صالحة تزداد لهيباً وتبهج كل الناظرين إليها، كذلك الروح القدس أيضاً، حينما أضاء قداسته في طبيعة طاهرة، لم ينر ضياء علمه في

المشرق رعيته حسب، بل في الغرب والشمال والجنوب أيضاً. وكانت الحكمة والنعمة الإلهية وحلاوة علمه اللذيذ يُذهل كل السامعين / بنطق اللسان وبالكتابة، حتى أن الجميع، ليس الأصدقاء والمحبون حسب، بل الغرباء أيضاً وكل الشعب، اعترفوا وشهدوا بأن ذلك الانتخاب حقاً ليس من الإنسان ولا بواسطة إنسان، إنما هو من المسيح الإله الذي ميزه منذ الأحشاء، مثل صموئيل وسائر المختارين، وأقامه في عصرنا الغارب وحده عموداً في كنيسته بنعمته. إذن أنا الشيخ الواهي، إذ امتلأت نفسي المتضايقة تعزية عظيمة بخبر انتصاراته، اشتقت إلى رؤيته المقدسة قبل انحلال حياتي المليئة بغصات هذا العالم. ولذا فأني استدعيت هذا الصفى باهتمام، فجاء عندي، فشكرت وأشكر الرب الذي منه تنحدر كل عطية صالحة وكل هبة كاملة، كما علم يعقوب الرسول الإلهي. فمجدت (الله) بدموع حرى، وأنا اعترف بأني لست قادراً على أداء الشكر كما ينبغي على موهبة كهذه التي بها حلت النعمة على ابني هذا، الذي أعطيه بركاتي القلبية باللسان وبهذه الكتابة التي سطرتها يدي الهرمتان، وأنا واثق من أن الرب يضيف له المواهب دوماً، ومع بركاتي يكمل وينجز له كل الخيرات والنعم، لأنه أيضاً...

كلنا أمل بأن تاريخ مار ميخائيل السرياني بحسب المخطوط المحفوظ في كنيسة مار جرجس في حي السريان / حلب، والذي يرى النور لأول مرة، سيكون لفائدة الباحثين وغيرهم، وهذا المخطوط بحسب ما هو مذكور فيه هو بخط المطران ميخائيل العوربيشي، أنجزها يوم كان راهباً عام /1558/، أي بعد /369/ سنة على وفاة البطريرك، وعنها أخذ المستشرق الأب يوحنا شابو نسخة خطها خطاط في الرها اسمه الشماس كورية سنة /2199/ يونانية أي /1888 م/، ونشرها بالتصوير الضوئي في باريس سنة /1899/، أي توجد /341/ سنة بين كتابة نسخة حلب ونسخة شابو، وحتى الآن لا توجد دلائل على أن أحداً عارض النسخة الموجودة عندنا بنسخة الأب شابو، كما لا يوجد لدينا دليل بأن الأخطاء الواردة في نسخة الأب شابو موجودة أيضاً في نسخة كنيسة حلب.

والجدير بالذكر أنه قبل أن يخرج تاريخ مار ميخائيل بالسريانية إلى النور كان الغرب يعتمد على نسخة أرمنية مختصرة نقلها من السريانية إلى الأرمنية القس يشوع ابن الشماس يعقوب ابن توما الشرقي، من مواليد حسن كيفا سنة /1245 م/ بناءً على طلب قسطنطين الأول جاثليق الأرمن، وهي الترجمة التي أجرى عليها بعض التعديلات وطبعها في أورشليم الراهب وارطان، ونقلت إلى الفرنسية. كما كان لهذا التاريخ ترجمة بالعربية نقلها يوحنا شقير الصددي مطران دمشق عام /1759 م/ بلغة عربية ملحونة. ولهذا النقل خمس نسخ موجودة في مكتبة دير

الزعفران، وصدد، وآمد، ودير مار مرقس، ولندن. وتبقى ترجمة المطران مـــار غريغوريـــوس صليبا شمعون التي نشرناها بالطبع هي المعروفة اليوم بين المستشرقين والباحثين.
